

Documenting UN History: Comparing Methods, Findings, and Lessons

A Workshop Convened by the United Nations Intellectual History Project

In collaboration with the UN Dag Hammarskjöld Library, the UN University (UNU), the Academic Council on UN Studies (ACUNS), and the Ralph Bunche Institute for International Studies

Thursday, 2 June 2005
The President's Conference Room, 8th Floor
The CUNY Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue, New York

9:00-10:30 am Session I

The Importance of Documenting UN History: Findings and Lessons from UNIHP Books

- Chair: Louis Emmerij, Lessons from the First 60 Years
- Yves Berthelot, Unity and Diversity (Regional Commissions)
- Sarah Zaidi, The UN and Human Rights Ideas
- John Toye, UN and Global Political Economy
- Abiodun Williams, UN History and Implications for the 38th Floor

10:30-11:00 am Coffee Break

11:00 am -12:15 pm Session II

UN Oral History, Methods and Findings

- Chair: Thomas G. Weiss, Lessons from UN Voices
- Tatiana Carayannis, UNIHP Oral History Methods and Challenges
- Jim Sutterlin, Yale UN Oral History Project
- Discussant: Mary Marshall Clark, Columbia University Oral History Office

12:15-1:15 Lunch (Dining Commons)

1:15-2:45 Session III

Related UN History Projects: Sharing Findings, Encouraging UN Histories

- Chair: Richard Jolly
- Liz Mandeville (for Craig Murphy), UNDP History Project
- Jens Boel, UNESCO History Project
- Carlos Fortin, UNCTAD Intellectual History Project
- Devesh Kapur, World Bank History Project

2:45-3:00 Coffee/Tea Break

3:00-4:15 Session IV

The Changing Role of Library and Archival Resources and Access

- Chair: Linda Stoddart, UN Dag Hammarskjöld Library
- Bridget Sisk, UN Archives and Records Management Section
- Helen Langley, UN Staff Career Records Project, Bodleian Library
- Discussant: Emma Rothschild, Cambridge University and UN Foundation

4:15-4:30 Coffee/Tea Break

4:30-6:00 Session V

Creating Knowledge on the UN and Strengthening Research Networks

- Chair: Ramesh Thakur, UNU
- Michael Doyle, ACUNS
- Diana Tussie, FLACSO
- Adebayo Olukoshi, CODESRIA
- Thandika Mkandawire, UNRISD

By invitation only