

SPECIAL EVENT

TUESDAY 12 JUNE at 1:15 PM
CONFERENCE ROOM 6

The Department of Public Information is pleased to invite Members of the Permanent Missions, Secretariat Staff, Representatives of Inter-Governmental and Non-Governmental Organizations and the Media for a discussion and Q & A to mark the release of THE OXFORD HANDBOOK ON THE UNITED NATIONS.

Participants:

Kiyotaka Akasaka, Under-Secretary-General for Communications and Public Information

Barbara Crossette, UN Bureau Chief of The New York Times from 1994 to 2001

Thomas G. Weiss, Presidential Professor and Director Ralph Bunche Institute for International Studies at CUNY

Sam Daws, Executive Director, United Nations Association of the United Kingdom

This is an authoritative, one-volume, and independent treatment of the UN's sixty-year history written by distinguished scholars, analysts, and practitioners. Citations and suggested readings contain a wealth of primary and secondary references to the history, politics, and law of the world organization.

Copies of The Oxford Handbook on the United Nations are on sale at the UN Bookshop, and will be on sale during the event at a special price of $120.00
